

CRAFT IN AMERICA WORKSHEET

Julie Chen: Amazing Books!

(For "Julie Chen: Thinking Outside the Book" Education Guide)

Go online to search for some amazing book forms. For each form you find, describe how you think it might have been made. Make other notes about how you might want to incorporate it in your own book making.

Book Form	Website	Process	How I might use it
Accordion (also called Concertina)
Fan Book
Tunnel Book
Scroll
Venetian Blind Book
Pop-Up Book
Miniature Book

On the other side of this worksheet, list some "How-To" websites you've found.

Name: _____

CRAFT IN AMERICA WORKSHEET

Julie Chen: From Prototype to Final Book

(For "Julie Chen: Thinking Outside the Book" Education Guide)

Use this sheet to create a "construction guide" to follow as you craft the final version of your book. You may wish to make a close-up drawing or photograph of the prototype's details to better illustrate the particular steps in the process. In addition, you may wish to add reminders or other comments - things to remember while involved in the step.

STEPS	ILLUSTRATION (optional)	COMMENTS
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.

You may need to continue listing steps on the other side of this worksheet.

Name: _____

