

Resources and Materials for Teaching

Resources:

- Craft in America's NATURE episode is viewable online at craftinamerica.org/episode/nature and pbs.org/craft-in-america/tv-series/nature
- Preston Singletary's website: prestonsingletary.com
- Museum of Glass (Tacoma, WA) website: museumofglass.org
- To research and see a vast selection of American Indian art, start at this map for locating cultures at the National Museum of the American Indian: nmai.si.edu/searchcollections/peoplescultures.aspx
- Download a full color PDF of a Pacific Northwest Coast Native Art Guide from the University of Alaska: uas.alaska.edu/library/pdfs/Northwest%20Coast%20Native%20Art%20Guide

Additional resources for worksheet: The Ecology of Art Materials

- Find extensive information on artists' paint: www.webexhibits.org/pigments
- Information from Green America about potential toxicity of art materials: greenamerica.org/livinggreen/toxicart.cfm
- A look at the use of ledger paper and hide-made garments as found materials for narrative depictions from the Smithsonian (historic and contemporary examples from Plains tribes): smithsonianmag.com/smithsonian-institution/these-native-american-artists-material-messages-180958567