

Resources and Materials for Teaching

Resources:

- Craft in America's ORIGINS episode, craftinamerica.org/episode/origins and Craft in America's website, craftinamerica.org
- Examples of different kinds of cloth (burlap, linen, microfiber, wool, etc.)
- Oral History Interview with Jim Bassler from Smithsonian Archives of American Art, aaa.si.edu/collections/oralhistories/transcripts/bassle02.htm
- History of Weaving from The 1911 Classic Encyclopedia, 1911encyclopedia.org/weaving
- World Shibori Network, shiboriorg.wordpress.com
- Handweavers Guild of America, weavespindye.org
- Extreme Textiles Exhibition at Cooper Hewitt Museum, cooperhewitt.org/exhibitions/archive/extreme-textiles-designing-for-high-performance
- Natural Dyes International, .naturaldyes.org
- Dharma Trading Company dye resources, dharmatrading.com/dyes